

Sagittarius November 22- December 23

Your element: Fire

Your ruling planets: Jupiter

Symbol: The Centaur

Your stone: Yellow sapphire, golden topaz, ruby and red coral

Life Pursuit: Magnanimous, honest, expansive, generous, reckless, extroverted, proud, larger than life, free

Vibration: I Expand

Secret Desire I am generous and loving to myself as well as others

Sagittarius is undoubtedly one of the most positive of the star signs. You were born under the ninth sign, which is ruled by Jupiter. Jupiter's traditional name was Jove, hence your jovial attitude.

You're extremely confident in whatever you do. Being one of the luckiest signs, fortune seems to favour you, whether you plan things or not. That's also the reason you don't mind taking the odd risk or two. You feel as if you can't possibly lose. This almost cocky attitude is something that attracts people to you.

You're also very enthusiastic, and this is contagious — people can't help but feel the same way in your presence.

Because people like you so much, they want to help you achieve your goals. But sometimes your life objectives are colossal — those arrows seem to shoot much further than the eye can see. Your philosophy is to bite off more than you can chew and then chew as fast as you can.

People around you will sometimes feel that you're overly ambitious, and that your aims are pie in the sky. This is not likely to change you: you'd always rather aim high and take on the adventure of life than get to the end of the road regretting that you didn't have a good go at making your dreams come true.

One of your primary lessons in life will be related to this. You will need to learn that there are limits to what you're capable of, and how to recognize them. Making sure your goals are actually practical enough to be achieved is another side of this one.

You have a great sense of timing, and know just when to make your move. This is because Sagittarius also governs knowledge, wisdom and spirituality. You know you can trust your gut feeling, so call on it when you need it.

Personal growth and understanding is a key aspect of your personality. You hate the idea of waltzing blindly through life without understanding — or finding — its meaning. This seems like a bit of a contradiction, because you're quite a party animal too, but you do have this deeper side to your character.

So you're constantly looking for meaning in your life, trying to figure out what makes the world tick, and planning and dreaming about how you can extract the maximum benefit from your time here. This is vitally important to you, so you'll go to great lengths to find what you're searching for.

Your totem, the Centaur, which is half man and half beast, describes you and the way you live your life perfectly. The Centaur has a bow and arrow and is aiming at the sky. This is you to a T. High ambition.

Because you are so positive, you see the possibilities as endless. You never take no for an answer, and you always see the cup as half full, not half empty. Adventure is your second name, and you will have a strong desire to travel and seek out new experiences. Visiting different countries and exploring diverse cultures will add to your all-round happiness. This curiosity also comes with a dose of restlessness, though.

You have a genuine interest in getting to the truth and be part of whatever environment you're in, but you are easily bored if the mental stimulation is missing. This is especially true when we put 'Sagittarius' in the same sentence as 'relationship'.

Lots of people don't get where you're coming from. You're serious about relationships, but you need a ton of stimulation and variety to keep love alive. You love to flirt and show off, but you need to be careful with this — if you're in a relationship it will cause problems.

You love freedom, and this applies to relationships, your family situation and your work: you hate anyone tying you down. It's as if you're Peter Pan and want to stay forever young and free. You'll need to balance this passion for independence with some responsibility and commitment sooner or later.

You're a gambler in life, with money as well as with relationships, but you always seem to land on your feet. Even when you lose, which you do from time to time, your light-hearted and optimistic nature means you believe you'll get it together again soon, without any trouble. And strangely, that's usually true.

Your independent and free nature, though it's one of your biggest assets, could cause you some difficulties. You are likely to expect everyone you come into contact to give you the freedom you want. People around you have to learn that this is an absolutely basic requirement for you.

At work, if you're not allowed to make choices about how you do your work, you won't work at your best. You rely very much on yourself, and if your employers give you a free hand, you'll do great work — people will see this side of your personality at its best.

We said earlier that Jupiter is psychic, and that you have keen foresight. That sixth sense is behind many of the decisions you make, and the more you trust that higher power, the more rewarding your life will be. Your decisions will usually be correct.

Overall, you see life as a challenge, but also as a grand adventure in which you must play your part fearlessly. Nothing much will hold you back, and even when the odd adversity arises you'll see it as part of your learning curve and accept it with a smile.

THREE CLASSES OF SAGITTARIUS

November 23 - December 2

Born between the 23rd November and 2nd December you are a true Sagittarian and will exhibit the traits mentioned here in full. Always optimistic and ready for an adventure, life will be full of pleasure and unexpected good fortune.

December 3 - December 12

If your birth date falls between 3rd December and 12th December fiery Mars and Aries as well as Sagittarius rule you. You are a spicier and more hot-tempered class of Sagittarian and are always on the go but can also get yourself into hot water with your impulsive nature. Physical by nature, sports will be an important component of keeping yourself stable and peaceful.

December 13 - 22

The third group of Sagittarians born between the 13th and 22nd December are co-ruled by the Sun and Leo. The majestic royal solar energies endow you with an incredibly strong sense of self and also the likelihood of tremendous success personally and financially. You will also develop a more spiritual attitude.

Born on the Cusp

Sagittarius - Scorpio Cusp

Being born on the borderline of the star sign before you, or after you, means that you have some of the qualities from that sign. This can be a subtle effect on your personality and character and you may have heard people mention that they are not "typical" of their sign and it is likely he or she will be a cusp baby.

If you are born on the borderline of Sagittarius and Scorpio, i.e. between the 22nd and 27th November, this has the impact on your personality of making you rather intense. The influence of Scorpio on the Sagittarian cusp baby is that some of your rather laidback attitude is diminished and makes you a bit more forceful than your typical Sagittarian brothers and sisters.

Jupiter, your Sagittarian ruler, combined with Mars and Pluto makes you a person who thinks not just big, but HUGE. There is no challenge too big for you to handle and in fact you thrive on tension - filled moments where you can shine by proving that you can cope with the pressures and show how capable you really are.

You are a 'big picture' person Sagittarius and have an almost unshakeable belief in yourself and your capabilities. You are able to create the life you feel you deserve and have tenacity and willpower that will put others in the shade, even other Sagittarians.

As both Scorpio and Sagittarius have intuitive powers, this gives you an edge in understanding human nature and the ability to manipulate the circumstances to your own benefit. As well as this you have an incredible sense of timing that enables you to capitalise on opportunities as and when they present themselves. You waste no time in achieving whatever success is put in front of you.

The combination of Sagittarius and Scorpio in your nature can cause inner conflicts for you from time to time. This shows up when people cross swords with you as you have a difficult time working out whether you should really wreak vengeance on them, which would be the way Scorpio would handle it, or go down the Sagittarian path of justice, mercy and a peaceful resolution.

You need to understand that in life being quietly assertive is often the best bet. There is no necessity to take things to extreme, whether you are thinking with the Sagittarian or Scorpio intellect.

Teaching comes easy to you and this is in part from the Jovian sign under which you are born. You can lead others to a sense of self - understanding with your wealth of experience and often, much of your knowledge is gained from your personal experiences rather from the words of others in book form. You have a wealth of personal and often humorous anecdotes that also serves as knowledge to others.

Sagittarius - Capricorn Cusp

If you are born between 14th and 21st December you will have the Sagittarian/Capricorn influence. Unlike the previous Sagittarius/Scorpio blend of energies which makes for a rather intense and aggressive individual, you will be much more reticent and more conservative.

Individuals born on this cusp are likely to be a rather toned down version of the usually exuberant and enthusiastic 'take the world by the tail' type of Sagittarian. You will more than likely be cautious and prudent but at the same time you will love life but not make decisions quite as impulsively as the 'typical' Sagittarian.

You have a strong sense of security and like to hold your dollars more tightly, which is not a well - developed trait in most Sagittarians. They are more 'easy come, easy go' and think that tomorrow will take care of itself – somehow.

The ruling planets of Jupiter and Saturn, which rule Sagittarius and Capricorn respectively, are diametrically opposed forces in nature. This has the influence of making your personality move up and down from extreme highs to very flat lows. Your lesson in life will be to find the happy medium, and if this can be achieved you will experience life in a whole new way.

Although Sagittarians are trusting of others, with the impact of Capricorn on your temperament, you may hold back a little more until you get to know them better. Until you are comfortable with them you won't reveal too much about yourself and will keep them at arm's length.

Capricorn may make you overly concerned with money, thereby keeping the carefree side of Sagittarius at bay. This could cause conflicts by feeling guilty about not working hard enough or not having enough money as opposed to wanting to be free with your cash

Sagittarius Sign Compatibility

Sagittarius sign compatibility with Aquarius

Sagittarius and Aquarius: a quite interesting combination!

Sagittarius is interested in his/her personal freedom and in the permanent adventure of life; Aquarius is interested in the welfare of the human kind and in the freedom of the human being in general.

If Sagittarius and Aquarius meet on these positions, the planet and the human kind will have a safe future, because it will make both of them so fervent that few minds will have such moments of foreseeing and intellectual prophecy.

Sagittarius sign compatibility with Capricorn

Very different and still very similar!

Do you find such a couple weird? Do you think it's impossible for an eternal fire of great human affective values to burn on the high Olympus?

Think of the equilibrium a mature and responsible Capricorn can offer a Sagittarius, and of the joy and optimism a warm, brave and lively Sagittarius can bring to a Capricorn!

What a special sense of measure appears when the principle of expansion (Jupiter) meets the principle of contradiction (Saturn)! What a sense of humour a Capricorn can prove and how temperate the adventurer Sagittarius can become

Sagittarius sign compatibility with Sagittarius

They say that, in such cases, the two are too similar not to contradict and different enough not to get bored with each other.

The solution is for a more "earthly" Sagittarius (whose guiding quality is more developed) to find a more "metaphysical" Sagittarius (whose theoretical side is more active), so that the one capable of putting things into practice to be able to help the one able to think.

Sagittarius sign compatibility with Scorpio

The abyss of passion or the intensity of sublimation?

Don't you find it extremely exciting for a Mars sign and a Jupiter one to enter the game of love?

Sagittarius likes feeling safe and as hidden as possible in order to live the affective and erotic union with extreme voluptuousness. (S)He aspires either to become dependent on the person (s)he loves through possessive attachment or to sublimate his/her harsh side in an elevated and sublime relationship.

Scorpio likes reaching the peaks of light and spirit, whether to reflect a hypostasis of Heaven through love, or to enjoy, in his/her well-known selfishness, an overwhelming fulfilment.

Sagittarius sign compatibility with Pisces

Compassion or boldness?

Well, you should know that there is love out of compassion, and this is only because Pisces' great and sensitive heart is ready to sacrifice for the happiness of a Sagittarius that aspires to discovering the fundamental truths of the human existence.

This is what Pisces dreams of: for someone to find some help in the sacrifice (s)he is willing to make for a great love, because this is his/her nature, to bring the other one to an equal level and then hug him/her along with the cause that (s)he is embracing.

How can a Sagittarius not like the fact that someone "burns" for the same purpose? How can a Sagittarius not like the fact that someone is at his/her feet?

Sagittarius sign compatibility with Libra

How much poetry and what a perspective!

How much love and romanticism, what a beautiful experience in the eyes of the world, lived voluptuously and with the conviction that, through them, the affective tragedy of the world will have a turning point and everybody will suddenly become noble and better!

Sagittarius and Libra can live exceptional love stories every minute and they can easily discuss about what is right and wrong in this life!

How much order they dream of bringing into the human condition and how much credit they take to themselves for the new aesthetic direction of the times they live!

Sagittarius sign compatibility with Aries

Do you, by any chance, feel like you were in a tournament?

Sagittarius sees things from a higher level, (s)he likes exploring and for this reason, an Aries will always help him/her start wonderful things.

It's a kind of love at first sight in which two sparks meet and dream, in a second, of a completely different future.

There is a fascinating energy here that could take you out of time and could lead you to a special incandescence, emotionally or mentally - not as overwhelming as a Leo's, but explosive enough, tending to burn down very quickly though!

So be careful about this Fire that could make everything burn in a minute if it is not properly directed

Sagittarius sign compatibility with Virgo

Two signs that can heal each other!

A very interesting, exciting but risky combination. Fire can burn away the drainage of the Earth and Earth can diminish the flames of a possible Fire. Both Sagittarius and Virgo are mental signs in the true sense of the word and they also have a common tendency towards the religious aspects of life.

But Virgo can often suffer because of Sagittarius' lack of responsibility when it comes to lasting feelings while Sagittarius can hardly stand Virgo's spirit of sacrifice and unconditioned commitment to sometimes lost causes.

Sagittarius sees things from his/her Olympian height while Virgo suffers because of the misery of life right from its roots. Sagittarius is a well-known extravagant, and Virgo is economical and tidy.

Sagittarius sign compatibility with Taurus

My God, what an adventure and what luxury! On the other hand, what a change!

A Taurus native likes living in comfort, having all (s)he needs and enjoying life while a Sagittarius native likes taking risks to feel the excitement to the full.

It's true that Sagittarius would like moving around a little while Taurus would appreciate a cosy, protective place after wandering for a long time. Especially when she is a Sagittarius and he is a Taurus! A sort of long-distance faithfulness appears and, paradoxically, it always brings fresh air to the relationship.

If he is a Sagittarius and she is a Taurus, we can live story times around this couple, times in which the man was the explorer that left on a journey, like in a fairy tale of initiation, and the woman was a kind of "mater familiar", setting undying values during his absence.

Sagittarius sign compatibility with Gemini

Isn't it as the wind blows? Yes, it is! Isn't the Air the one keeping the fire burning? Doesn't the absence of Air put out any Fire? The whole thing is for a favourable wind to blow in the right direction so that the Fire continues to burn constantly and completely! Even if the Air is "the Little One" (Mercury) and the Fire "the Big One" (Jupiter).

Yes, a Sagittarius-Gemini relationship relies on words and mental complementary universes but, if you don't avoid shallowness (characteristic of the Gemini), you could become two completely parallel universes before you know it!

Fortunately, Sagittarius' burning nature can melt the informational coldness of the partner located on the other side of the zodiac, reminding Gemini that love must be "felt", not "rationalized".

Sagittarius sign compatibility with Cancer

Aren't you, dear Sagittarius, suffering from affective generosity by any chance? It would be good if you wondered sometimes, in order to avoid sufferance caused by strong emotions.

The Sagittarius-Cancer couple can make some sentimental mistakes precisely due to the profound love they are capable of. This is why their common lesson is the sense of measure.

Because Cancer is extremely sensitive and sympathetic, and Sagittarius is extremely overwhelming and protective, they often end up sparing each other of the possible sufferings, convinced that this way they avoid hurting their feelings.

For example, neither of them dares say what (s)he doesn't like about the other one directly - because Cancer is afraid of being abandoned, and Sagittarius is not concerned with the question of truth when loving. That's why we can never know what is going to happen to the Sagittarius-Cancer couple

Sagittarius sign compatibility with Leo

Sagittarius and Leo! The real power of Fire!

Hard to believe, but that's the way it is! Sagittarius wants to save everything, Leo wants to spend everything! Sagittarius always reflects him/herself; Leo always looks for everything for him/herself! Leo builds his/her own royalty, Sagittarius follows a metaphysical or spiritual royalty when (s)he crosses the barriers of a more elevated mental universe of Water signs (that are preoccupied with rather earthly issues).

If general aspects support their capacity of highlighting what they have best, the Sagittarius-Leo couple is most often a special, even excellent combination. They can symbolize the pure hedonist or the authentic thirst for lofty truths. They can wander happily at the weekend, as well as they can prefer the idyllic aspects of a romantic life.

2014 Love Horoscope

Uranus will encourage Sagittarius' house of love between 2011 and 2018. Its electrifying influence will be characterized by variations, novelty, unexpected changes or situation reversals.

The first part of 2014 will be full from this point of view: incited by the opposition with Mars (the ruler of Sagittarius' house of love) and by the squares with Pluto and with Jupiter (the ruler of your sign), Uranus will have the power to apply a series of electric shocks to you, and it could even reconfigure the romantic and sexual picture for you radically.

As you like strong emotions, though, and you have the wonderful quality of optimism, you might find these turbulences revigorating or take them as a chance to explore new territories.

As regards old or official relationships, they can be troubled especially by problems related to children, pregnancy or sexuality.

Except for the Uranus-like adventures, between May 7th and July 13th 2014 you'll have to deal with some of the Mercury type. Being in the cycle of retrograde movement, Mercury will stay in Sagittarius' house of relationships more than usual.

The phenomenon will be the more interesting as Mercury is precisely the ruler of this house. The transit will express more intense preoccupation for the couple or for the partner and it is to be expected that it'll bring significant events.

Because Mercury will have a short stopover in one of Sagittarius' financial houses, it is very likely that a money-related topic will be in the centre of attention.

Things will be more difficult to control in the period June 7th – July 1st 2014, when Mercury is actually retrograde, but they will completely clear up in July.

Moreover, in July 2014 everything will clear up, meaning that even the Uranus-like storms will calm down, and the rest of the year will be peaceful and harmonious.
